

Year 13 Philosophy and Ethics

Subject and Year Group	Autumn Year 13	Autumn 2 Year 13	Spring 1 Year 13	Spring 2 Year 13	Summer 1 Year 13	Summer 2 Year 13
Topic/Unit to be studied	Philosophy: Religious Language Ethics Sexual Ethics (Flipped) Buddhism: The Three Refuges Meditation		Philosophy: Attributes of God Ethics: Meta Ethics Buddhism: Engaged Buddhism Buddhism and Gender Developments		Buddhism: Society Ethics: Conscience
Core Knowledge and skills	Philosophy: Verification Principle Falsification Symposium Language Games Via Negativa Analogy Symbol Ethics (independent/flipped learning) Pre and extra martial sex Links to gender discrimination Homosexuality Buddhism Buddha Dharma Sangha Laitiy and Ordained Methods of Meditation Aims of Meditation		Philosophy: Omniscience Omnipotence Omni benevolence Ethics Normative and Meta Ethics Naturalism Intuitionism Emotivism Buddhism: Mahayana Buddhism Trikaya Doctrine Bodisattva Sunyata Madhyamika Buddhis ethics Engaged Buddhism The Fourteen Precepts Social Activism Attitudes towards war and social injustice Attitudes towards the environment Gender Equality Attaining female awakening Female Monasticism		Buddhism: Pure Land Buddhism Zen Buddhism Buddhism in the West Ethics Aquinas and the conscience Freud and the conscience Fromm/Butler/Newman

Assessment for and of learning	Both: Essay question completed every two weeks.	Both: Essay question completed every two weeks.	